ANNA I

67.00m (219'9"ft) | 2007

DESCRIPTION

To understand the yacht ANNA I is difficult without going on board and seeing the detail with your own eyes. The quality of workmanship everywhere you look, from the first moment you step on board, is extraordinary. The designers from Michael Leach Design went into the most minute detail and to say the finest quality materials were used would be a gross understatement. From the bespoke wall coverings with laser cut marquetry; to the uniquely designed and built pieces of furniture; to the bespoke pattern coverings; to the motifs on the coffee cups... the attention to detail is extraordinary. ANNA I is a yacht worthy of being called a ‘work of art’ or even a ‘masterpiece’.

ACCOMMODATION

Anna I accommodates 12 guests in 6 of the finest cabins. Feadship quality is always outstanding, but your guests will see the difference in the details. The interior is full of furniture and details created by SilverLining in England – the ultimate bespoke artisanal craftsmen with some pieces taking thousands of man hours to produce. There are also 19 of the best hand picked crew members on board, including two top level chefs, who look forward to welcoming you on board.
