AUBREY

28.70m (94'1"ft) | 2012

DESCRIPTION

The large main salon incorporates both lounge and dining areas that are furnished with an 'L shaped' material sofa with two separate leather chairs and coffee tables. These areas are situated close to her electrical sliding doors and offer direct viewing of the TV which rises from inside a sideboard on the starboard side.

Aubrey's layout has been designed to ensure maximum comfort for all. In the forward section of the salon, a rectangular glass dining table comfortably accommodates eight guests on white leather chairs with stunning views out to sea.

A day head is positioned at the forward end, starboard side, of the main salon.

The wheelhouse is on the main deck forward, with helm seating position and stairs down to the lower deck accommodation.

The galley is on the port side of the main deck, comfortably located between the main salon and wheel house.

Aubrey's exterior boasts a large foredeck lounging area with retractable bimini top and storage of her new jetski below. Main deck aft holds a large dining table for alfresco entertainment, and her ample flybridge incorporates a bar, square dining table and reclinable sun pads.

The tender garage holds a Williams 445 jet tender and a full array of towable toys, all of which were purchased new in 2017.

Aubrey is a stunning yacht that boasts ample deck space and a comfortable and contemporary design.

ACCOMMODATION

Aubrey's interior configuration has been designed to comfortably accommodate up to 10 guests overnight in four cabins, comprising a full beam master suite with dressing room and plentiful wardrobes, one VIP stateroom with large skylight, and two twin cabins with the bonus of additional pullmans. All cabins are ensuite and equipped with full air conditioning and LCD TVs and she also has four crew onboard in two cabins to ensure a relaxed luxury yacht experience.
