CHECKMATE

44.20m (145'0"ft) | 2013

DESCRIPTION

Delivered in 2013, Checkmate features a traditionally beautiful, timeless interior of Burl Madrona woods, Italian marble and high-end fabrics by Zuretti and Joan Brown Interiors. Her on-deck master suite allows for stunning 180-degree panoramic views, a completely private foredeck seating and sunning area, an owners study and generous his-and-her marble baths. She is the only 145 Benetti with a much larger and totally redesigned skylounge, which flows into her 270-degree enclosed or alfresco dining space. The guest staterooms and crew lounge area are the first ever to have large, wide hull ports offering amazing views.

Checkmate's bridge deck offers multiple seating areas that are located both aft and forward of the wheelhouse. It also provides access to an enormous sundeck with a day head and drop-down flat-screen TV.

Thanks to modern anchor stabilizers, Checkmate offers supreme comfort while at the dock or on anchor. Guests are able to may remain connected at all times via high-speed VSAT Internet. Checkmate is fully world-cruising capable thanks to a dual-voltage electrical system and proven heavy displacement hull form with good range. She also earned special recognition from Benetti as its 100th fiberglass yacht built.

ACCOMMODATION

Checkmate can sleep up to a maximum of twelve guests in her luxury five cabin layout which features a master stateroom and four guest staterooms. She also fully accommodates for her crew in separate crew quarters ensuring a relaxed and luxurious experience on board.
