DESCRIPTION

Launched in 2009 by the renown Italian shipyard Baglietto and immaculately maintained; no expense has been and isn't spared to warrant amazing seaworthiness and absolute comfort and, at the same time, give the feeling of a much larger yacht because her volume is simply sensational.

Her interior also caters for every mood to ensure guests can find the ideal space for reading, listening to music or enjoy the company of everyone in their group. The cabins feel light and airy at all times and offer everything one expects in a 5 star luxury resort. Clicia is utterly friendly: child-friendly, event-friendly, corporate-friendly...

Available for charters in the Balearics as well as in the South of France and Italy, she is amongst the best and most competitively priced charter yachts within her size range. Being the largest yacht based in summer in the gorgeous Balearic Islands, one of the world's most attractive archipelagos, clients spare themselves having to assume the hefty positioning fees inherent to bringing a yacht from abroad.

Captain Marc Van Loon leads a fantastic team of eight true professionals of the "can-do" type, eager to show guests the best time on board. No cruising grounds in the Med hold any secrets for Cpt. Marc Van Loon. The chef on board will take guests on a parallel palatable voyage through the Mediterranean, French and fusion cuisines and, not shying away from exploring any other type of cuisines, guests only need to say which type of cuisine they would like to taste.

Warning: chartering NATORI is addictive so you better assume that, after having been once on board, you'll be repeating the experience over and over again. The positive side of it is that no one can blame you for chasing happiness and it has no negative side effects whatsoever!!!
