37.80m (124'0"ft) | 1998

DESCRIPTION

Stepping board, her thoughtfully designed layout is immediately apparent; the many social areas from formal to casual catering perfectly to families or couples. Al fresco dining can be enjoyed on any of the three decks, while a more formal option can be found inside.

The lower deck guest accommodations are decorated in warm, subtle tones and bright, light cherry joinery offer a soothing ambiance for eight guests on the lower deck.

Outside, the luxury vessel's large deck spaces are just as welcoming. For ultimate relaxation, the upper deck is a private space offering a Jacuzzi and several sunbathing areas. When the sun burns just a little too bright, guests can head inside to the air-conditioned skylounge and take advantage of the entertainment system or board games.
