ROXANE

46.80m (153'6"ft) | 2010

DESCRIPTION

A spacious, sheltered deck dining area nestles between the aft cockpit and the main saloon, forming the perfect spot for breakfast. Guests can then head forward or aft to spend a lazy morning relaxing on extensive sun pads or treading her wide, uncluttered decks. Banks of double sun beds mid-ships track the course of the sun, while an extendable table turns this area into a supremely romantic dinner setting. Removable awnings over both dining areas give the option of either sun or shade.

ROXANE's stunning interior is based around a neutral palette of sandy browns, white, black and grey, which works with the sloop's naturally curved ceilings to create a warm, contemporary feel. Comfortable sofas and colourful sculptures characterise the main saloon, whose large ceiling windows can be opened to bring the outdoors in. Rare African wenge wood is used throughout, perfectly complementing the cool, fresh interior design with its subtle safari nuances.

ROXANE can accommodate up to nine guests in four en suite cabins, with the addition of one pullman berth. The full beam master cabin is a beautiful, uncluttered space, complemented by a walk-in wardrobe and exotic black marble bathroom. Also situated on the lower deck are a comfortable double cabin, a twin, and a full beam VIP suite with separate access forward.

A starboard side ladder provides easy access to the water, and a full quota of watertoys includes the beautiful custom-built wooden sailing dinghy 'Voyou'.
