DESCRIPTION

SUMURUN sailing yacht is a classic 35m yacht from the legendary William Fife & Sons' yard on the Clyde, who once served members of European royalty. She comes with an abundance of timeless nautical character, from her deck box with concealed binnacle and helm seat, to her gleaming ship's bell and traditional ship's wheel on a bronze Thomas Reid pedestal. Despite this, she also flaunts a variety of modern touches, such as a stereos throughout the yacht as well as wifi and a Bluetooth sound system.

ACCOMMODATION

SUMURUN can accommodate five guests in three cabins, including an Owner's double to starboard and a single berth to port as well as two Pullman berths, with banquette stowage and drawers under and a writing desk aft. There is also room for up to six crewmembers across three crew cabins.
